

INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL WORK

Phone: +255 (22)2700918/2774443

Fax: 2701375

Email: info@isw.ac.tz

Website: www.isw.ac.tz

210 Shekilango Road

P.O. Box 3375

14113 Kijitonyama

Dar es Salaam.

INVITATION TO ATTEND SHORT COURSE IN GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING

1. Introduction

The Institute of Social Work (ISW) is one of the public higher learning institutions in Tanzania that was established under the Act No. 26 of 1973 (as amended by the Miscellaneous Act No. 25 of 2002). The major functions of the Institute are to conduct training, research and consultancy in areas of social work and other related fields. Pursuant to its functions, the Institute strives to seek solutions to problems facing the public. Towards this regard, the ISW has realized, in the face of the pertinent social, psychological and economic challenges facing the society today that there is need to conduct short course on guidance and counseling in order to equip different actors with knowledge and skills in addressing the emerging social problems.

2. Learning Outcomes

This is a tailor-made and hands on course dealing with real life experiences that addresses contemporary psychosocial problems confronting our communities. On this basis thereof, at the end of the course participants will be able to;

- i. Provide professional guidance and counseling services.
- ii. Manage counseling process in different intervention settings.
- iii. Utilize principles, approaches, skills and methods of counseling.
- iv. Keep counseling records accordingly.
- v. Differentiate guidance and counseling services.
- vi. Utilize counseling theories for better counseling impacts

2. Course Participants

The course is intended to Deans and wardens of students, Counselors, Social Welfare Officers, Care givers, Children's home attendants, Day care givers, Parents and any other person(s) working with people.

✓ Course Content

The training will cover the following main topics;

- i. History of Guidance and Counseling.

