

INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL WORK

VACANCIES TO VOLUNTEER WITH THE INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL WORK COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMME

The Institute of Social Work Community Engagement Programme has been developed to empower individuals, families, groups and communities to address existing and potential social problems using their own resources and support from different partners. The programme also aims at providing hands on knowledge, skills and experiences to ISW academic staff, ISW students and other partners from within and outside Tanzania.

In view of that, the ISW community engagement programme is pleased to announce to all students the opportunity to volunteer under the institute of social work community engagement programme. Currently, the programme is working in six wards of Kinondoni and Ubungo Municipal Councils in Dar es Salaam. The wards include: Tandale, Mwananyamala and Bunju in Kinondoni Municipality as well as Ubungo, Kimara and Kibamba in Ubungo Municipality.

The students with the following qualifications are highly encouraged to apply for the availed opportunity to volunteer with the programme:

1. Be a current student at the institute of social work in any training programme or from any higher learning institution within or outside the country that has entered partnership agreement with the Institute of Social Work;
2. Be a student who has participated in classroom training in any of the following modules on: community work, sociology, social work practice, social research, social entrepreneurship, finance, gender, human behavior, child care and protection, social policy, business studies, labour and employment, human right, development studies and other related modules in the relevant fields.
3. Be committed and ready to engage directly with the community;
4. Be interested to work in one or more of the following areas: children in need of and in the alternative care; positive values and responsive parenting; victims of prostitutions and women empowerment; children connected with streets; Resource Mobilization, Community Scholarship and Family Support; and Addressing Gender Based Violence (GBV) and Violence Against Children (VAC).
5. Be ready to work on voluntary basis under the supervision of the Institute of Social Work.
